

I am deeply disturbed by the FCC's consideration of a policy change which would allow ownership of a newspaper, television station and radio station in the same locale. Cross ownership is already destroying the opportunity for American citizens to be exposed to a variety of opinions on important issues and should be eliminated not expanded.